2. (S) Our current projections of employment commitments for the remainder of the current fiscal year, combined with our estimated attrition for this same period, indicates that the Agency strength as of the end of September 1977 will be very close to our revised employment ceiling of []. The target level I have established for 31 March 1978 (i.e., []) will permit an orderly phased staffing adjustment down to our revised September 1978 employment ceiling of [].
